

Casement Fastener Reversible

M73 Range

A plain spoon ended pivot-reversing non-locking casement fastener, one of the most commonly used fasteners for traditional timber windows. It operates with either a mortice or hook plate and is reversible. Not suitable for use on weather stripped windows. Comes with a 10 year mechanical guarantee.

